

President

From the main campus, situated on a stunning 650-acre wooded escarpment adjoining Nipissing University and overlooking the city of North Bay, to the Aviation and Commerce Court campuses and several other community education hubs, including a new campus in Parry Sound, Canadore College is hailed as a progressive community college that leads in student success and excels in providing high-quality, market-ready programs and services to over 3,500 students and clients. Offering an exceptional, personalized working and learning environment for its faculty, staff and students, Canadore College and its Board are seeking an outstanding leader as their new President to lead one of Canada's truly community-focused institutions.

As the ideal candidate, you will be an experienced leader from the broader public or private sectors who has the proven ability to engage and inspire students, staff and community. You will bring a clear vision of what excellence in a community-based college and institution looks like in the 21st century, and utilize your strong analytical thinking, determination, and leadership drive to enable change and create a culture of collaboration and innovation within Canadore. By leveraging your exceptional interpersonal and communication skills, you will skilfully develop key relationships and opportunities on behalf of the College with the community-at-large, the University, First Nations, government, industry and college partners that will help strengthen and champion Canadore College into this decade.

Join a true community College and enjoy living and working in one of Ontario's most beautiful four-season areas. To confidentially explore this opportunity further, please submit a detailed covering letter and résumé to resumes@promeus.ca, quoting File #CCP0201. Requests for additional information or nominations of suitable candidates may also be submitted to the email address above. The review of applications will commence in early February 2010.
